

Github interface - Annotated diagram of collaborative project repository

1. Project

2. Issues

3. Files

4. Landing page or README.md file

5. Insights

6. Edit repo details

7. Description of the repository

8. Link for Git pages

9. Topic labels

10. License

Find this resource on Zenodo at DOI: <https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.8221283> under a CC BY 4.0 licence.

- 1. Project: This shows you the project boards for this repo.
- 2. Issues: All the tasks that have been raised on this repo.
- 3. Files: These are all the files in the repo.
- 4. Landing page or README.md file: Your README.md file is automatically rendered as a landing page for your site.
- 5. Insights: This shows you all the activity that has happened on your repo.
- 6. Edit repo details: You can write a short description of your project and add labels.
- 7. Description of the repository.
- 8. Link for GitHub pages: Website generated by this repo.
- 9. Topic labels: Topic labels related to your repo can help other people find your project.
- 10. License: The license that you have put on your repo.